Forecast For Grampian
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Friday 28 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry, bright and warm on Friday, east coast cloudier.

Today:
Low cloud burning back to the east coastal strip where some will linger, keeping it cool. Sunny spells elsewhere and becoming warm. Haar edging further inland into northeast Aberdeenshire towards evening. Winds will be light. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Evening sunshine for most but low cloud and haar in east edging further inland, some forming along the Moray Coastal strip too. Clearer further inland. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Saturday:
Haar burning back to the coastal strip once again with some sunny spells, though cloud may increase enough inland for the odd light shower. Warm, but coasts cooler. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
A fine dry and warm spell of weather with some sunny periods. Still the chance of patchy haar around Aberdeenshire coasts.
